THOMPSON'S BODY MAY LIE IN STATE

THIS MAY BE PLAN RATHER THAN SEND DELEGATION OF OFFICIALS TO FUNERAL.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 20.—Congressman Joe B. Thompson's body may lie in state in the rotunda of the capitol in Oklahoma City before it is laid to rest at Pauls Valley, his home.

This was discussed at the state-house Friday, with, as an alternative the sending of a large delegation of state officials and former associates of Thompson in public life to the funeral service.

The body will leave Washington for the west Friday night, accompanied by members of the Oklahoma congressional delegation and others of Thompson's colleagues.

Congress Pays Tribute.
Resolutions of sorrow were passed by the house of representatives Friday and an early adjournment taken in respect to the dead member.

Thompson's sudden death on a train, 50 miles from Washington, late Thursday shocked the entire state, for the congressman had been a leader in his party and active in Oklahoma affairs since territorial days.

His death also created a striking situation in Oklahoma political affairs, leaving, as it did, the most populous district without representation at Washington. That a special election to name a successor would be called by Governor Robertson soon after his return from the east, was assumed Friday to be a foregone conclusion.

Will Be Close Race.
The political complexion of the district is such as to assure a close race for party supremacy and the number of aspirants who have sought the berth unsuccessfully before or who are politically ambitious now, so great that one of the most interesting and hard-contested campaigns in Oklahoma history is certain.

Heart failure, induced by Bright's disease, occasioned the congressman's sudden death. He was on a train, home-bound with his son, Lieutenant J. B. Thompson Jr., and near Martinsburg, W. Va., 50 miles from the capital.

He was coming to Oklahoma on business and to visit the district he had represented in Washington since 1913.

The State's Great Loss.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 19.—(Special)—Gov. J. B. A. Robertson and the other members of the Oklahoma delegation, who are here to present the silver service of the state to the U. S. S. Oklahoma, were visibly affected upon receipt of the news of the death of the late Congressman Joseph B. Thompson. A deep gloom settled upon the excursionists and curtailed the services arranged for the presentation of the silver offering.

"Joe Thompson's death is a great loss to the state," Governor Robertson said, upon receipt of the news. "He was an earnest advocate of good government and unassumingly he rendered a great service to Oklahoma."

FINAL PREPARATIONS FOR BIG STEEL STRIKE

By the Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Final preparations for handling the strike of steel workers in the Chicago district began Monday had been made today, and twenty-five union organizations were on their way to different cities to aid the local officers in getting the strike started. The organizations were immediately instructed to notify independent mill owners that the strike would remain in force against them until "they signed up," but that the national committee would arrange any conference they might request.

At Gary, Ind., there are approximately 19,000 steel employees and in the south Chicago mills 16,150.

At the other mill sites in the Chicago districts the following numbers of men are employed:
Indiana Harbor, Ind., 14,100; East Chicago, Ill., 4,000; Joliet, Ill., 17,500; Hammond, Ind., 8,700; Milwaukee, Wis., 3,000; Waukegan, Ill., 5,000; Evanston, Ill., 800; Chicago proper, 3,300.

LONDON REPORTS WHITE STAR LINER AGROUND

LONDON, Sept. 20.—A dispatch from Kirkwall today to the Evening News reports a White Star liner aground north of Ronaldsday. It is believed, says the News, that two thousand troops for north Russia are on board.

Later it was announced by the ministry of shipping that the liner had been refloated and was proceeding to her destination. The vessel was the transport Vedic, of 5,733 tons net.

SPANISH CRUISER IS STILL MISSING

DIVERS WITH SEARCHING PARTIES STILL SEARCH FOR VESSEL MISSING SINCE BIG HURRICANE.

By the Associated Press

KEY WEST, Fla., Sept. 20.—With a wrecking crew and divers examining a sunken hull, and with scores of boats searching the surrounding waters for trace of bodies or survivors, the fate of 450 passengers and members of the crew of the Spanish cruiser Valbanera, which foundered during the hurricane of last week, was expected to be cleared up today. The naval station here has offered additional facilities, and with two Cuban gunboats will aid the other craft in the search.

The Valbanera, bound from Spanish ports to Havana, was last heard from on the night of Sept. 8, when she appeared off the entrance to Havana harbor. Yesterday a steamer bearing the same name but reported by divers to be smaller than the missing vessel was found sunk off Rebecca Shoals, forty miles from Key West.

Divers sent to examine the hull, says the Cuban consul here, confirm the report that the wreck bore the name "Valbanera," but said it appeared only about one-half as large as the missing liner.

ALLEN ODD FELLOWS ENTERTAIN VISITORS

About thirty Ada Odd Fellows went to Allen yesterday afternoon to participate in the semi-annual celebration of the Pontotoc County Odd Fellows Association. The visitors report one of the best celebrations they ever attended, and declare the Allen boys the best entertainers they ever met.

The Allen lodge had prepared for entertaining their visitors by barbecuing a beef, which was served at 7 o'clock. A feature of the evening was the degree work put on by the Ada team. Another pleasing feature reported was a 2 hours' speech on Odd Fellowship by Walter Coyne of Ada.

Plans Complete Normal School Trip to Capital

At a called meeting of assembly at the Normal school today definite plans were completed for the trip to Oklahoma City on "President's Day."

It was announced that special coaches had been provided by the Katy for the Normal. These will be decorated with Normal school colors and other decorations that the various classes care to use. The coaches will be attached to the special train leaving Ada at seven o'clock Friday morning and due to reach Oklahoma City at 10:35. The day will be spent seeing the Fair until the president and his party arrive.

"Then after we have seen and heard the president," President Gordon said today in discussing the plans, "if indeed we do see and hear him, we will make the return trip leaving Oklahoma City at eleven o'clock Friday night."

Judge Bailey Is Not a Candidate For Federal Job

CHICKASHA, Okla., Sept. 19.—Judge Frank M. Bailey of Chickasha, former district judge and former candidate for the state supreme bench, denies that he is an aspirant for the position of United States district attorney, which will be vacated by W. P. McGinnis in a few months. Judge Bailey's name has often been mentioned of late as a probable nominee.

"I am neither an applicant nor an aspirant for the appointment," said Judge Bailey.

STATE FAIR OPEN TODAY; BIG CROWD

EXHIBIT HALLS ARE BRIMMING OVER WITH BOUNTY OF A MOST PROSPEROUS YEAR.

By the Associated Press

TODAY'S PROGRAM

8 o'clock—Gates open. All exhibit halls open.
9 o'clock—Babies health conference in Babies' Health Building.
10 o'clock—Judging of fruits and flowers in agricultural hall.
11 o'clock to 12 o'clock—Band concerts.
2 o'clock—Automobile races. Six events.
2 o'clock to 5 o'clock—Five vaudeville acts and auto polo between races before the grandstand.
2 o'clock to 5 o'clock—Band concerts by two bands.

By News Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 20.—With favorable weather predicted the gates at the state fair swung open this morning at 8 o'clock for the biggest first day program ever arranged for the fair. Exhibit halls are brimming over with the bounty of a prosperous year and livestock barns are full of the finest collection of cattle and swine ever assembled at the fair.

That all records for the first day will be broken seemed assured last night when thousands of visitors poured into the city on railroads coming in from all parts of the state. Streets were swarming with crowds last night and it is expected the thrill and fun-seekers will be on hand early this morning at the state fair grounds.

Fourteen automobile racers will compete in the big races to be held in the afternoon, the racing program being one of the best of the fair.

Six events in which the snorting speed cars will compete are scheduled for this afternoon. The feature of the program will be a three-mile race for the state championship. Six Oklahoma racers will compete in this event. There also will be a big "Victory Sweepstakes" in which all the cars will compete. This race will go twenty laps and will be one of the biggest events of the whole fair.

Agricultural exhibits were never more numerous and of better quality according to county agents who are here to help take charge of the exhibits. More counties are entered than ever before and the competition between eastern and western counties promises to be the keenest in years. Eastern counties are confident they will make a strong bid for the big prizes this year.

Stock men say the livestock exhibits are the best ever assembled here. Two hundred head of Herefords will feature the livestock exhibits and some holders of world records are included in some of the other livestock shows.

WILSON EXPLAINS FREEDOM OF SEAS

TELLS AUDIENCE AT SAN DIEGO THAT THIS WAS OUR REASON FOR ENTRANCE INTO WAR.

By the Associated Press

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 20.—For the first time during his speaking tour the president told an audience here last night why he considered it necessary to explain the freedom of the seas to the peace conference at Paris.

Declaring that one of the reasons for which America went to war was the freedom of the seas, the president said that under the league of nations "it became unnecessary to define the freedom of the seas." It was accepted, he said, that the doctrine was for the protection of neutrals while other nations were at war.

"But there are no neutrals under the league," he added.

Replying directly to a reference to the Philippines by Lyman J. Gage, secretary of the treasury under President McKinley, who introduced Mr. Wilson last night, the president said that under the league of nations the Pacific possessions could be assured of political independence. That instrument, he said, would be a guarantee against extended aggression.

ENROLLMENT LARGE AT EAST CENTRAL

On Thursday morning President Gordon reported to State Superintendent Wilson that the enrollment at East Central was 3552. This is exactly the same number that was enrolled on the same date a year ago.

A year ago there were 100 students enrolled in the Students' Army Training Corps, and when the armistice was signed eighty five per cent of the military students left at once for their homes. When the military enrollment of the past year is taken into consideration, it will be seen that the present enrollment is a substantial gain over last year.

Deportation Will Follow Prison Term for Emma

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 19.—It became known yesterday that a warrant for the deportation of Emma Goldman was served on her last Friday in the Jefferson City penitentiary where she has finished serving a two-year sentence for attempting to obstruct the army draft. Her release from the penitentiary is set for September 27.

It was announced that the warrant had been served by a deputy from the St. Louis immigration office and that Miss Goldman will be arrested as soon as she leaves prison and unless she can provide a $15,000 bond she will be placed in jail to await a deportation hearing.

When Miss Goldman entered the prison at Jefferson City in July, 1917, she said she was born in Russia and in case the deportation is ordered the immigration authorities were under the impression that Russia would be the country to which she would be deported. This brought up the interesting question as to how she would be taken there.

Miss Goldman said upon entering the prison that she was 48 years old and was an American citizen. She said she had been in the United States for 31 years and that her father, now dead, was a naturalized American citizen.

Charles A. Lich, deputy inspector of the St. Louis immigration office, said today that he was not ready to announce the details of the government's case against Miss Goldman, but that he was confident of proving two points essential to deportation, namely, that Miss Goldman is an alien and that she is an anarchist, and therefore an undesirable alien.

She is a native of Russia, he said, and has never been naturalized in this country.

The time and place of the deportation hearing have not been set. Miss Goldman will have the privilege of counsel and witnesses. The transcript of the evidence will be sent to the secretary of labor, who will decide whether she shall be deported.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Making wine for home consumption is a violation of the war time prohibition act and persons guilty of the practice are subject to heavy penalties, Wayne B. Wheeler of Washington, D. C., general counsel for the Anti-Saloon League of America, said yesterday at the conference of state superintendents of the league.

"The people are being told that they may make wine for home purposes," Mr. Wheeler said. "This was allowed before the war time prohibition act was passed, but since then these people are subject to heavy penalties, and if the making of wine is contrary to the state law, they are also subject to a special $1,000 tax."

LOCAL POST NAMED FOR NORMAN HOWARD

The Ada post of the American Legion was named the "Norman Howard Post" by a unanimous vote last night at a post meeting in the city hall. It had been announced previously that the post would be named in honor of the first Ada boy killed in action, and as near as the post can ascertain Norman Howard was the first from Ada to lose his life.

Future meetings of the post will be held on the evening of the second Monday of each month. At the meeting last evening Charles Deavers was appointed post chaplain, and the following committees appointed:

Committee on Information: Charles Bobbitt, Harold Constant, A. R. Chandler, Harry Scheinberg and Claude Bobbitt.

Committee on Employment: A. R. Chandler, Paul Alderson, Harmon Ebey, Sam Scheinberg and N. B. Haney, Jr.

Application will be made at once for a post charter, and all who join the post before next Friday night will be listed as charter members. All soldiers, sailors and marines who served in the war are eligible for membership and are urged to hand their names to the committee on membership, of which Clarence West is chairman.

By a unanimous vote the thanks of the post were extended to the Ada Evening News "for space so generously and gratuitously donated for the benefit of the American Legion."

Norman V. Howard, for whom the local post of the American Legion was named, went to France with the Ninetieth Division, being a member of H Company, 357 Infantry. From the best information obtainable he was killed during the great drive in the Argonne in October, 1918, and is buried near the Marne.

NORMAN V. HOWARD.

Prior to his enlistment in the army Norman had attended East Central Normal at Ada, and had taught school in Pontotoc and Haskell counties. He was a cartoonist of ability and drew the cartoons that appeared in the "Pesagi" for 1916.

GETTING READY TO FREE INDIANS

LOCAL INDIAN AGENCY OFFICIALS AT MUSKOGEE PROCEEDED DESPITE DELAYS AT WASHINGTON.

By News Special Service

MUSKOGEE, Okla., Sept. 20.—Despite delays which are said to have had their origin at Washington, officials at the Indian agency are proceeding with the gathering of data looking toward the removal of restrictions on half-blood Indians and the making of per capita payments to members of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes.

With nearly one-fourth of the checks already mailed out, officials expect all of the per capita payments to be made within a few weeks. Checks of $140 each have been mailed to 3200 of the 20,000 Choctaws, while checks of $200 each have been sent to 1500 of the 6000 Chickasaws, according to figures made public yesterday.

Over 250 applications have been received from half-blood Indians who wish to have their restrictions removed. Reports coming in daily from the field clerks all over the district. Only adult Indians, both mentally and physically able are eligible under the recent order issued at Washington. From 2000 to 5000 are said to be eligible.

"We resent implication that all of the delay over these matters has originated in this office," said Superintendent Gabe Parker, "we are getting them through just as quickly as possible and have done everything possible to expedite the payments and the removal of restrictions."

"We hope that the truth of the handling of Indian affairs will come out of the forthcoming investigation by the congressional committee and we are willing to stand on our record."

WANTS INDUSTRIAL ARMISTICE NOW

SUSPENSION OF HOSTILITIES BETWEEN CAPITAL AND LABOR FOR SIX MONTHS
IS ADVOCATED.

By the Associated Press

FREEMONT, Pa., Sept. 20.—An absolute industrial armistice for six months urged by Attorney General Palmer in an address here today to permit the solution of economic problems arising out of the changes wrought about by the war.

Such a period of freedom from unrest, he declared, would result soon in increased production which would bring about an era of "easier living and better times for all."

"The crying need of the world," said the attorney general, "is for peace, not political peace between governments alone, not industrial peace amongst men alone. The things for which men fight are never settled while the war is on. An armistice must come and anger must spend itself before men can get together and give due consideration to the rights of others."

"If we could have an absolute industrial armistice in America for six months; if both the ingredients of capital, that is, money and labor, would be active and constant in the problems of production; the busy, peaceful days would soon yield a spirit which would make it possible to solve the problems which now confront us."

CONDITIONS IMPROVING IN CORPUS CHRISTI

By the Associated Press

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Sept. 20.—With the number of known dead at 386 and steadily increasing, residents of Corpus Christi and other nearby coast towns today resumed the dreary search for the bodies of additional storm victims.

In Corpus Christi conditions were becoming more normal today according to statements issued by the principal relief committee. Clothing and financial assistance still constitute the important needs of refugees, but the food situation was said to be fairly satisfactory.

WHO WILL GIVE THIS BOY A JOB?

Yesterday's News carried a story of the arrest and incarceration in the county jail of a youth, Robert Roland, by name, who pleaded guilty to stealing a pair of trousers because it seemed that circumstances had forced him to the act.

Roland's story was so realistic, his face was so honest, that the News agreed to pay his fine if a suspension of his jail sentence could be secured. Last night Judge Erown suspended both fine and sentence provided young Roland would show the stuff of which he claims to be made. The provision is that he stay in the city, get a job and tread the straight and narrow. Roland wants to do that. And the News believes that he will do it if given a chance.

But who wants a young man who has pleaded guilty to theft? Who is willing to risk him?

If the Savior of men was on earth he would tell the boy to go his way and sin no more—and we believe that young Roland would do that very thing.

He hasn't had his chance. He was born in El Paso, Texas, where his parents both died while he was yet an infant, and he was reared by a kind-hearted negro mammy. He is a part of that great throng—of which there are altogether too many—who has neither home, relatives nor loved ones.

He had worked in Detroit and saved enough to make his way back to El Paso, but it was stolen from him by his room mate. Not to be daunted, he started anyway and got as far as Francis when circumstances forced him to commit what he claims to be his first crime.

Roland don't want to have to do that again. He wants to "beat back" and be given a chance, and the News would be willing to make most any kind of a reasonable wager that he would make good. You would believe so, too, if you could see him. But he can't do that unless he gets a job.

Who is willing to give this lad a chance?

Who has a job for a young man that wants to work rather than steal—who only asks for a chance—the chance that every boy in the world ought to have in a world that was properly regulated?

The boy is today in the care of Rev. S. B. Dameron. If you know where this boy can be placed let Mr. Dameron know about it today, or phone the News office.

Suits Reckon With Wool-Furs

Wool furs, or fur fabrics, have become thoroughly established staples that manufacturers of suits and top-coats reckon with each fall in making up their lines of practical garments. Where wool furs undertake to look like the pelts they imitate they are so marvelously close to the original that it requires a careful inspection to distinguish between them. Seal skin is imitated in wool fur that keeps one guessing, unless it is almost within arm's length, and there are furs almost as successfully imitated. But sometimes the manufacturers of wool fur use a genuine fur only as an inspiration and interpret it in a fabric that is handsomer than the original. This is what has been done in the case of the material that resembles the natural muskrat pelt, which is used so much for coats.

As a trimming for cloth suits wool furs prove more practical than real furs, from the standpoint of service, and a handsome wool fur is better looking than a cheap fur. It stands up better. Manufacturers christen their new productions with new names, for the convenience of buyers, but the public prefers to call them by the names of the furs they resemble.

A smart new suit of duvetyne, shown in the picture above, is trimmed with furlet that looks like seal skin. The coat model is one of the most successful that the season has presented, with close-fitting body and a basque that falls in ripples at the sides. Rows of narrow silk braid appear on the basque and on the sleeves. In passing, it may be noted that this form of decoration has made a triumph this season, appearing persistently on the best models in frocks and suits. The rows of braid on the sleeves terminate in large buttons. The coat buttons up the front and looks very cozy and trim with a high choker collar of the wool fur. The belt is interesting and pleasing. It is very narrow and fastens at the front with a most unexpected little bow tie of the material, instead of the usual button or buckle.

LIBERTY BONDS
CAUSING CRIME

SO SAYS REPORT FROM TOPEKA, CAPITAL OF STATE WHERE ROBBERY IS RAMPANT.

By the Associated Press
TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 19.—To the lure of the Liberty bond coupled with the unrest in the wake of the war is attributed the present bank-robbing wave in Kansas that has resulted in the holding up or burglarizing of twice as many of the state's financial institutions during the first two-thirds of this year as occurred in 1918 and 1917.

Results of the plundering of the state's banking houses by an alleged organized gang range from a net gain of $5 where a hold-up was attempted to a loss of approximately $50,000 to a national bank, records kept by W. W. Bowman, secretary of the Kansas Bankers' association, show. Up to September 5, 24 state and national banks had been held up or burglarized in Kansas, with a loss estimated at a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Kansas State Bankers' association as totalling nearly $300,000.

Two of the 24 bank robberies concerned national banks while the remaining 22 occurred at state banks. This was imputed to the larger number of state banks, there being 1,100 as against 240 national banks, and to the fact that the smaller towns as a rule have state banks, the capital required for a state bank only $10,000 as against $25,000 for a national bank.

"A reckless bandit set that cares for nothing and realizes that some day its members will be apprehended is responsible for the depredations on our financial institutions, in my belief," said Mr. Bowman. "The unbalanced, restless spirit of the times has brought out the 'little bit of bad' in a reckless set of men who feel the greed for gold and are drawn on by the fact that our banks are full of currency, Liberty bonds, war savings stamps, etc. This is the type that refuses to work despite the fact that higher wages are being paid than ever before."

Asked if penalties provided by the state law were satisfactory, Mr. Bowman said the law provided for a minimum of ten years and a maximum of thirty years imprisonment, adding if a man wanted to rob a bank "a penalty of forty or fifty years would not stop him any more than a penalty of thirty years."

Suffered Three Years with Rheumatism, Catarrh and Stomach Trouble, Since Taking No. 40 Feels Fine

Gary, Ind., April 25, 1919. "I suffered for over three years with chronic rheumatism, catarrh, constipation, stomach trouble, bad blood, nervous spells, aching limbs, so I could not sleep. Saw an advertisement in the daily paper about Men-denhall's Number 40 For the Blood. Thought I would give it a trial. Although I was discouraged, as I had doctored with a number of physicians and tried numerous medicines without receiving any benefit. I have taken but two bottles of Number 40. Can eat anything I want without fear and am not near so nervous and am feeling fine. I am now starting on my third bottle. FAIR MEN READY
FOR GREAT CROWD

THIRTEENTH ANNUAL STATE FAIR AND EXPOSITION OPENED IN OKLAHOMA CITY THIS MORNING.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19.—State fair turnstiles will be oiled and greased today, and tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock they will begin to click for the opening day of the thirteenth annual state fair. And they are expected to click faster than ever on an opening day.

Hammers and saws were playing a symphony of joy for fair fans who visited the beautiful grounds yesterday. Stands and exhibits sprung up like mushrooms and by night most of the tented city was ready. Approximately 1,000 carpenters will work through today and all night putting the exhibition halls and grounds in final shape for the greatest state fair.

The fair grounds were never in better shape for the reception of the thousands who will swarm into the 160 acre tract beginning tomorrow. Thursday morning rain cleaned the foliage, flowers and grass and the acres and acres of bermuda lawns are green and fresh. Flowers line the walks, roads have been oiled and dust will be kept at a minimum. Hundreds of large flags flutter from the pinnacles and gables of buildings and the grand stand is ablaze with various sizes of flags.

Agricultural hall was thronged yesterday with county representatives working on county exhibits. The Oklahoma county exhibit will be completed today and will be among the best in the hall. Blaine county has a novel display. Logan county is consoling its exhibition under a huge curtain. Kafir, feterita and maize are being used effectively in mosaic work. Ten Indian schools are arranging picturesque wall exhibits and are working out pictures in grains.

Government building. The government exhibits will be ready at 8 o'clock in the morning, representatives said. The building promises to be one of the biggest attractions on the grounds. War exhibits of the army and navy will occupy one-half of the large building and the other half will be taken up with the government agricultural display.

The war exhibit will be one of the most interesting. It will include six carrier pigeons—veterans of the war. The pigeons saw active service on the front and carried messages across the German lines to observation parties. A wireless demonstration station, in which wireless messages will be demonstrated, and various types of United States army guns and captured German guns will form a large part of the exhibit.

Entries for sheep, swine, farm products, baked products and poultry closed yesterday at 6 o'clock in the evening. Thursday, September 25, has been set aside as Knights of Pythias day. L. S. Mahan, state fair secretary, said yesterday.

Special Police to Be in City. Fifteen or twenty special detectives from the police forces of the larger cities in the west and southwest will come to Oklahoma City during State Fair week to assist police here in protecting the public and President Wilson against criminals, it was decided at the commissioners' meeting yesterday afternoon.

The men sent for will be those best acquainted with the criminals in each city. It is believed that Oklahoma City will be made the mark of hundreds of pickpockets, thieves and other criminals during the week. The detectives will know many of the criminals who come here and will arrest them on sight.

Mayor Walton sent telegrams last night to the police headquarters at Dallas, Kansas City, St. Louis, Fort Worth, Chicago and several other cities asking that two or more of the cities' oldest and best detectives be sent here. The men will stay here during the entire fair week.

Plans already have been laid to have the city force deployed to put an end to any schemes local crooks may devise. With special men ready to meet the out of town crooks at the station the mayor believes the protection of Oklahoma City and President Wilson will be assured.

PHONE HEARING WILL BE HELD NOVEMBER 5

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19.—The corporation commission has postponed until November 5 the general telephone hearing in which matters relative to service and rates are to be inquired to. The hearing had been set for October 2, but attorneys representing the telephone company explained it would be impossible for them to appear for the company at that time.

The four months in which rates under the government operation of the wire were to stay in effect, will have expired with October and beginning with November the wires will be entirely returned to state control, unless some other provision is made in the meanwhile. The commission will make a full investigation into conditions that control in the operation of telephone with the view of service and rates. In this connection an exhaustive investigation is now in progress relative to use of automatic phones, and it is possible the commission may make some recommendation or order on this feature of the service.

SALVATION ARMY TO THE RESCUE OF TEXAS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19.—Relief workers from Texas, Oklahoma and Louisiana Salvation Army posts under orders from Lieut. Colonel George Wood, commander of the southwestern division of the Salvation Army, are now working in devastated Corpus Christi, according to reports from the forty corps cities of the southwest.

Lieutenant Colonel Wood was in Enid, Okla., when the storm struck Corpus Christi. As soon as he learned the extent of the storm he ordered workers from all posts to the scene of the disaster. He immediately followed the workers, arriving Wednesday afternoon at Corpus Christi. Supplies and money were sent to report to Roy Miller, chairman of the relief committee, at Corpus Christi. All the finances and workers with the maximum amount of supplies available were placed at the disposal of the relief chairman of the stricken city.

"It is the policy of the Salvation Army to get into these places as soon as possible," Lieutenant Colonel Wood said in his telegram to the southwestern posts. "You will accordingly proceed with all forces available and all supplies at hand to the devastated area. Place yourself at the disposal of Roy Miller, chairman of the relief committee, and stand by to give any assistance possible until all danger of want and suffering incident to the storm has passed."

Chickasha Express: In his statement to members of the foreign relations committee at the White House conference, President Wilson gave some excellent reasons for speedy ratification of the treaty. He pointed out that the copper mines of Arizona, Montana and Alaska are operating at a loss; that the zinc mines of Missouri, Tennessee and Wisconsin are producing but half their normal output; that the lead of Missouri, Idaho and Illinois reaches only a portion of its former market; that the sale of cotton in the central empires and other parts of Europe is impossible and that many other commodities can not be marketed because the channels of trade are barred until the resumption of commercial relations is made possible by the ratification of the treaty. Those nations which first conclude peace will also be the first to enjoy prosperity.

A STILL HUNT LEADS A SHERIFF TO A STILL

SHAWNEE, Okla., Sept. 19.—A home-made still was found intact by the sheriff's force here yesterday near the O. K. school house, thirteen miles southwest of Tecumseh. C. C. Pounds, on whose farm the still was found, is held for manufacturing intoxicating liquors.

The sheriff received a "tip" recently that moonshine was rather generously found in the neighborhood of the Pounds' home and started a quiet investigation. A path that seemed unusually well beaten was located winding through a small wood near the road. The officers followed this to a deep ravine, where the still was found, in perfect condition but without any of its goods around it.

The "inventor" of this device built a metal furnace with sheet iron and in the top of the furnace placed a large pot. This pot was covered with a brass cover through which was run a long brass pipe. The pipe passed through a barrel of water into another pot and there was the "good old corn licker."

This is the second still found here and it is said other stills still remain.

A WAR-TIME ILL THAT'S SPREADING
HUNT'S SALVE CURES IT!

BRED in the war trenches of Europe, a wave of ordinary ITCH is spreading over the country. This skin disease, history shows, has always prevailed, following wars and the concentration of armies. It was common during the Civil War and following that conflict. There was an epidemic of the Itch after the Spanish-American War. Now history is repeating itself after the great European struggle.

Returned soldiers and those with whom they come in contact will find a recognized remedy for the Itch in Hunt's Salve, commonly known as "Hunt's Itch Cure."

Many a veteran of the late 30's will testify to its merits. If directions are followed HUNT'S SALVE will prove a never failing cure for all forms of the Itch, and your druggist will tell you so. He sells HUNT'S SALVE under a strict guarantee to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied user.

A Medford, Oklahoma man, among thousands who praise HUNT'S SALVE, says:

"Some people dislike to call it the Itch, but candor compels me to admit I had it badly. Your Hunt's Salve, however, cured me after many other remedies had totally failed. One box completed the cure—the first application afforded wonderful relief. My advice to those who have to scratch, is to use Hunt's Salve."

Hunt's Salve is especially compounded for the treatment of Itch, Eczema, Ringworm, Tetter and other itching skin diseases and is sold on our guarantee by all reliable drug stores, or it will be sent direct by mail if your local druggist cannot supply. Price 25c per box. A. B. RICHARDS MEDICINE COMPANY, INC., SHERMAN, TEXAS.

ARE KICKING.
ABOUT THE high price.
OF EGGS.
AND THEY'RE costing now.
ABOUT FIVE cents apiece.
I BELIEVE.
AND FOLKS.
SEEM TO THINK.
THAT THIS is exorbitant.
BUT IT all depends.
UPON THE way.
YOU LOOK at it.
AND I'LL admit.
THAT IT does seem high.
WHEN YOU have to reach down.
INTO YOUR pocket.

Sore Throat No Joke to Jill, the Giraffe

GIRAFFE SUFFERS FROM SORE THROAT

Sore throat? Huh! What does a mere human being know about such an ailment? Just think of a giraffe the next time you are afflicted with a bit of bronchial trouble and thank your lucky stars that you are not in his elongated class.

Of course a lengthy neck has its compensations—when eating ice-cream or swallowing a cooling beverage, for instance. Needless to say, giraffes never indulge in such luxuries but they do eat such tidbits as sliced apples and carrots. And in juvenile giraffe circles the last named delicacies are what sweetmeats are to real youngsters.

The accompanying picture of Jill—one of the herd of eight giraffes carried by the great Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined Shows. John Patterson, who is boss of all the animals in the mammoth supper-menagerie is of the opinion that one of the higher air-circuits struck Jill when she was a bit overheated and so gave her a cold. It took a whole pail of goose grease to cover Jill's neck and yards and yards of cotton flannel to wrap it up. But Jill got well and will be but one of hundreds of strange sights to be seen when the circus exhibits here next Wednesday, Sept. 24th.

After circus patrons have visited the zoological display they will pass into the mammoth "big top." Here they will witness the gigantic introductory pageant with its great companies of knights and fair ladies and gorgeously costumed groupings which tell in pantomime many of the stories made famous in fairy and nursery lore. Following the pageant will come more than a thousand arenic sensations introduced by scores of performers new to America, many trained animals and an army of clowns that breaks all precedent in point of fun and numbers.

SIXTEEN TULSANS ON WAY TO NEW ORLEANS

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 20.—Sixteen Tulsans, representing the Tulsa Advertising club and several banks, leave at 12:50 this afternoon for Springfield, Mo., where they will join forces with other advertising club delegates on a special train bound for the fifteenth annual convention of Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, to be held Sept. 21 to 25 at New Orleans.

Leonard D. Ormner, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Tulsa club, will leave with the Tulsa delegation and will "cover" the world convention of ad men for the World.

The local delegation will be headed by L. E. Abbott, who for several weeks has been directing preparations for attending the meet as chairman of the "On to New Orleans" committee.

Special church services of an inspirational nature in practically every house of worship in New Orleans will open the convention Sunday. At these meetings there will be

WICHITA GREAT WESTERN PLANS TO EXTEND TO MORE STATES

Over $5,000,000 Business During Its Opening Year

A North Dakota Farmer Evolves Rust Proof Wheat

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., Sept. 15.—Wichita Falls' biggest insurance institution, the Wichita Great Western Underwriters, announced Saturday their field of operations to take in several new states. The company, which is made up of home capital, and which has on its advisory board some of the leading men of Texas, in financial circles, expects to bring into local banks deposits through their underwriters, hundreds of thousands of dollars during their new fiscal year.

The Wichita Great Western Underwriters started in business just a year ago, and during the first twelve months secured on their books more than five million dollars insurance, with three million dollars more in hand at the close of the twelve months' period. The company writes fire insurance on the reciprocal plan, and were able at the end of the year to refund to their policy holders 52 per cent of the premiums paid. According to Mr. Mabry, who is one of the executive officers of the company, this remarkable result was obtained through the careful selection of preferred risks accepted.

The personnel of the institution is well known to the southwest as leading bankers and business men. John S. Mabry and R. E. Huff are managers and attorneys for the company. The advisory board is composed of the following prominent Texans:

R. E. Huff, president First National Bank, Wichita Falls, Texas.
J. A. Kemp, president City National Bank, Wichita Falls, Texas.
J. C. Hunt, wholesale grainery, Wichita Falls, Texas.
W. H. Fuqua, president First National Bank, Amarillo, Texas.
R. R. Darrah, manager Magnolia Petroleum Co., Ft. Worth, Texas.

A REAL AMERICAN IS GONE

It was with keen regret that we received the message informing us of Congressman Thompson's death. We had known him ever since we came to Oklahoma, and had always counted him a personal friend and a valuable public citizen. His untimely departure leaves a large vacant space in our life and in the life of Oklahoma.

Joe Thompson was a commoner. He was one of the plain people when he first came to this virgin territory, he lived a commoner's life thru all that arduous struggle from obscurity up to fame, he was a commoner when amid the mountains of West Virginia "God's finger touched him and he slept." He never lost his close connection with the plain people of his state, it was from them he derived his strength in all his struggles and it is among them that the tidings of his death will fall with greatest force.

It cannot be said that Joe Thompson was a brilliant statesman. His talents were hardly more than commonplace, but he commanded an energy that never tired, and he supplemented this with a courage that never failed. He was a fighter thruout his career, and worked and fought his way over bitter opposition, leaving men more brilliant far behind in the way of advancement. Withal his courage was clothed in kindness, and the men over whom he triumphed never felt bitterness toward their conqueror.

It is hard to imagine a Democratic convention without Joe Thompson's presence. It's bitter hard to think of him as dead. In the fullness of life when many additional years appeared his reasonable portion, it is passing strange that he should die. But in the opening of the Autumn tide, while Nature begins to weave her many colored shroud for the flowers, leaves and grass that clothe our hills and valleys, he comes back from the scene of his latest triumphs to rest in the valley he loved, by the side of that river he loved, among the friends he loved, beneath the starlit skies of Oklahoma.

Less than a fortnight ago we read the story of a Tulsa captain who had been ostracized by his own men and excluded from an organization of veterans of the war. Today we read that of every thousand officers in our overseas contingent 330 were killed. These two stories present a contrast that will puzzle many Americans. It will puzzle no one acquainted with the working of the West Point military caste idea. The officers were the bond slaves of an inhuman system. They could not avoid the conventions of that system however much they desired to do so. They were the slaves of an antiquated regulation as inexorable as the law of the Medes and Persians. The sad result is that some of the finest young men that ever wore shoulder straps became an object of scorn to the men they lead in battle. We have heard some of these returned officers bitterly denounce a system that inevitably produced ill feeling in the army, but they were bound down by that system and from its operations there was no possible escape. This damnable West Point product is the curse of the American army.

Captain Dodd of the American Expeditionary Force declares that Quentin Roosevelt was not killed by his falling machine on the battlefield. He claims that Roosevelt descended in safety behind the German lines only to be killed by a German firing squad. He claims to have seen photographs of the execution displayed by a German soldier who saw the shooting take place. It is to be hoped that this story is altogether a mistake. If true, it would only add another harrowing detail to the tragic sum of Hunnish cruelties. But if true, it throws a brilliant light on Senator Knox's denunciation of the "cruel peace" imposed on Germany.

The Daily Oklahoman expresses wonder that people will dare reside in the storm belt along the Texas coast. Perhaps it is just as well to be killed by a gulf storm at Corpus Christi as it is to be killed by an auto or shot dead by a policeman in Oklahoma City.

Next Wednesday will be a fine day for the enumerators to take the census of Pontotoc county and finish the work in one day. The Ringling-Bailey-Barnum Brothers Show will be in Ada that day.

Some senators are so bitterly opposed to our participating in a possible war in Europe that they are doing their darnedest to involve us in a war of our own in Japan.

Judging by the painful silence east of the Spavinaws, the Owen-for-president boom seems to be a dud.

The State Press

Miami News: Pershing says that the American "at any crisis of his life" feels that he is master of his own destiny. Not if he is feeding a family at present prices.

Miami News: Mexican troops have been ordered not to fire on American aviators flying over the border. This order will greatly benefit the health of Mexican soldiers.

Miami News: Wilson said that the covenant would keep troops from crossing the Atlantic. Poincaré doubts it, because our troops are now in Siberia. Where did he get the notion that troops cross the Atlantic to Siberia?

Tishomingo Capitol Democrat: McAlester is getting to be a city of the first class. A girl was kidnapped there one day last week, and later found near Crowder. It's up to Tulsa to do something sensational over the east side.

Tishomingo Capitol Democrat: The Daily Ardmoreite says that there wasn't a drunk in that city during the four days of the county fair. Probably the editor is trying to prove an alibi. There never was a day that there wasn't a drunk in Ardmore. Rube was carried thru once himself on the Santa Fe.

Durant News: A banker told the editor of the News the other day that a number of his bank's farmer customers had paid off their notes at the bank with the first bale of cotton marketed. This is remarkable in comparison with the years of ten cent cotton and fifteen dollar seed, and when lots of the bank's customers could not pay their little debts, incurred for living expenses, from the whole crop.

Shawnee News: In justice to its interested friends, Bert Love of the Ardmoreite and Marvin Brown of the Ada News, the Morning News feels in duty bound to report to them the fact that one of the Creamery signs has been removed from over its door but goodness only knows when the sign painter will get done taking care of the new corners in the business district and put Shawnee News up in place of the remaining sign. But don't despair, boys, a report of the accomplishment will be made one of these days.

Walters New Era: President Wilson is telling the unvarnished truth to the homefolks on those political jackals that have been obstructing the peace pact and the league of nations so long, and giving out such monstrous falsehoods to their people as the reason for their opposition. These political mountebanks are being daily impeached as to their intelligence and honesty. History will record them as the most conspicuous set of political highwaymen that ever existed.

Idabel Gazette: The cost of living has reached high tide and the reaction has set in, according to the federal reserve board's review of trade for August. Slight declines have been noted in cost of some foodstuffs, as well as in some textiles and shoes. Business, however, continues at a high level and no fear of an industrial upheaval is expressed. Judge C. B. Ames of Oklahoma, assistant attorney general of the United States, said that the downward tendency of prices has set in. He complained, however, that congress had not yet acted finally on the high cost of living problem, although the president made his recommendations a month ago.

Okmulgee Democrat: It is stated in well informed and authoritative quarters that the cattle men of Okmulgee county have already lost approximately $250,000 this year by reason of their inability to secure from the Frisco railroad company cars for the shipment of their cattle at an opportune time. When, after a long delay, cars were available, they had to sell on a declining market and pocket a loss of from $25 to $30 a head on their stock. There could be no more striking and painful illustration of the disadvantage to business interests of the county of being obliged to rely upon a single railroad to care for the immense business traffic of this county.

Atoka Indian Citizen: A few years ago the people of this state elected the above named gentleman to the United States senate, and after ten years the sedies are beginning to fall from their eyes, and they are seeing plainly what a mistake they have made in giving him this office. The only thing to say of Thos. P. Gore is that he can strike an attitude and make a pleasing speech. He has failed in every respect to represent the people of Oklahoma. He has been as contemptible in his work of fighting Mr. Wilson, as has been Jim Reed of Missouri; and the best thing that the people of Oklahoma can and should do is to ask him to resign. If he won't quit by the asking, then demand it, and see to it that he does it. No, we don't need him longer. This state has been gored deep enough already, and it will take years for the wound to heal. Come home, Mr. Gore, and go on the vaudeville at the picture show. This work will be more congenial, if not to you, to the people of Oklahoma.

Every time the carp breathes it moves 4,368 bones and muscles.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE BY MARY GRAHAM BONNER

THE TWO HORSES.

"Listen horses," said Jenny Horse, "Jerry and I have been quite famous." The horses were in a stable and they were neighing and chattering.

"Yes," said Jerry Horse, "we have, but it was very, very foolish."

"Dear me," said another horse, "you two horses are a great addition to the stable. To think that you have both been famous and that you consider fame a foolish thing."

"One would think that to be famous would be everything in the world, like being in history for example, like being a George Washington or some great creature."

"There, there," said one of the horses, "that is going rather far. You begin to imagine things and then you imagine more and more. One day you were making believe so hard that you almost believed yourself you had been the horse who had been ridden by Paul Revere."

"That's so," said the horse who had been speaking. "Well, fame always seems very wonderful to me."

"You have been famous for having been always in the one stable. That is quite unusual in these days of selling horses and buying motor cars," said another horse.

"True," said the horse who thought fame was so fine.

There were many horses in the stable for the master loved horses and so did the mistress, and so did the children. They wouldn't have given up their horses for anything, as they enjoyed riding and driving.

"What were you going to tell us?" one of the horses asked Jenny Horse. She was the new white horse who had just arrived.

"Oh yes, I was going to tell you how famous Jerry and I have been."

"I'm Jerry," neighed the other new white horse.

"Tell us," neighed the horses.

"Tell us," they urged.

"You tell the story," said Jerry, nodding his head at Jenny.

"No, you would tell it far better," said Jenny.

"Ah no, that is modest of you but it is not so, you would tell it better."

"Pray tell it," the other horses urged.

"Well," said Jenny, "Jerry and I were two horses who were once in an opera. Now an opera is a great musical play. There is a huge orchestra or big band or whatever you want to call it. Then there are singers and before them are lots and lots of people who clap their hands and who seem to enjoy it very much."

"They say," said Jerry, "that it costs lots of money to go to operas."

"Now Jerry," said Jenny, "don't be snobbish."

"Well, I wasn't snobbish, I was only telling that as a matter of interest."

"We were in the opera," continued Jenny. "There have been horses who have appeared in other operas and also in plays from time to time, but we are two horses you actually see and know who have been in a great, great Italian opera called Aida."

"Did you sing?" asked the other horses.

"Oh, gracious no," said Jerry, "we weren't asked to sing, and our voices weren't even tried."

"We were dressed up with bells and a handsome harness," said Jenny, "and we brought in a fine wooden cart. Oh, the stage had every color on it imaginable! It was a glorious scene."

"And I nudged Jerry, and shook my head at him and said:

"Aren't we a pair of pretty smart horses to be in a great opera like this?"

"Why yes," Jerry answered, "but we don't understand the beauties of music like the joy of eating hay."

"Hush," I said to Jerry, "let no one hear you say such a thing at the opera. Isn't that a fine story?"

Just Like It.

Aline and her brother attended a birthday party of a playmate. Ice cream, cake and lemonade were served. The boy asked his hostess for a glass of water.

"Drink your lemonade," Aline said, interrupting.

"I don't want lemonade. I want water," said the boy, looking pleadingly at his hostess.

"Don't be silly. Drink your lemonade," said Aline. "It's just like water."

He Never Argues, Himself.

"Confound an argumentative man, anyhow," exclaimed Mr. Glipping as he came in late to dinner, feverishly mopping his brow.

"What's the matter, dear?" asked Mrs. Glipping, sympathetically.

"I had started home when I met Twobble on the street. He made a statement about the league of nations and I spent an hour and a half trying to convince the ignoramus that he was wrong."

Brown—Heavens, no; she used to kiss me occasionally to see if I'd been drinking, but even that is unnecessary now.—Detroit News.

Rapid Movement.

"Of course, you would never think of deserting your party."

"Never!" said Senator Sorghum.

"On the contrary, it sometimes takes quick work on my part to keep my party from deserting me."

FORTY SIX DUCKS BEFORE BREAKFAST

George W. Abbott writes Judge C. A. Galbraith that he found quite a change in climate when he reached Sioux Falls, South Dakota, where he is now spending a few weeks. In addition to the pleasure of cool days and nights after leaving Ada there is always the pleasure of hunting. Mr. Abbott writes that he went out duck shooting the other morning and got forty-six fine ducks before breakfast. He plans to return to Ada about the middle of next month.

Mrs. M. A. Cassidy went to Seminole this morning to join her husband in a visit over tonight and tomorrow. Rev. Cassidy has been conducting a series of meetings at that place the past week, which will close tomorrow night. Rev. and Mrs. Cassidy will return home Monday.

Roy Adair, who has been in charge of the management of a farm for his brother-in-law, Mr. Skinner, at Holdenville, since his return from the army, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Adair, over last night and returned to Holdenville this afternoon.

Miss Lois Bennett, of Chickasha, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. E. Pettigrew, 220 East Thirteenth, since Thursday noon, left this afternoon for her home. Miss Bennett is a convalescent of a Hugo Sanatorium, where she has been ill for several weeks, but expects to be able to resume her duties as piano teacher in the O. C. W. at Chickasha at a very early date.

The Christian Endeavor Convention of Cole District, started off very smoothly last night with a pleasing address of welcome from Dr. Gordon A. C. Chaney also gave a very interesting talk on "Loyalty to Christ." Several out of town visitors were present at last night's service and a number of additional delegates arrived today. Among the speakers on docket for tomorrow's services, is Lt. James H. Ray, field secretary of the southwestern district. Lt. Ray has just returned from a period of service abroad with the aero squadron.

Miss Daisy Priest, after an extended visit to her sisters, Mrs. R. D. Stone, at Purcell, and Mrs. Harry Leeper, at Fort Worth, Texas, returned home yesterday.

Missionary R. E. L. Ford returned last night from North McAlester, where he had been since Wednesday with his sister, Mrs. Copeland, who is very ill with dropsy. The doctors in attendance think it very doubtful if Mrs. Copeland recovers.

A delegation of about forty members of the I. O. O. F. lodge of this city attended the County Association last night at Allen. The purpose of the meeting was to elect new officers for another year. Walter Goynes was elected president of the association.

Amaral, who has been employed as salesman at Stevens-Wilson Dry Goods company since his return from the army, and who had been there about a year prior to his leaving for service, will leave the first of October for McAlester, where he will take over the management of Krone Brothers Dry Goods Store. Mr. and Mrs. Amaral have been making their home at Mrs. Kee's where they had an apartment. They have many friends here who will regret to learn of their removal.

Ben Stegall, son of Rev. and Mrs. B. F. Stegall, is here on a thirty days leave of absence from the base hospital at Fort Sam Houston, Tex. Mr. Stegall fell from an aeroplane flight in France a little more than fourteen months ago, since which time he has been detained in a hospital. First at Tours, France, and after a partial recovery he was sent to Des Moines, Ia., and from there to Fort Riley, Kan., and thence from there to Fort Sam Houston where he has only been stationed the last two months. Stegall is looking fine, and says he is, by no means an invalid. He will be leaving soon for Henderson, Ky., where he will visit his wife, before returning to camp.

New Oil Substitute.
A factory has been started in Sweden for extracting oil from schist, thus adding one more to the number of substitutes already on the market. Large quantities of alum schist are found in the district, yielding benzene and crude oils.

FOSTER ARRESTED FOR ASSOCIATING

George W. Foster was assessed $24.75 in police court this morning on a charge of association with a prostitute. In default of payment he is now confined in the city jail.

Foster was arrested last night by Mayor Kitchens and Wick Adair in a residence on West Eighth street. Foster's wife had complained to the police of her husband's misconduct and went with them to the house he had been visiting. At first the officers were unable to find Foster, but finally Policeman Adair located him under a bed in a back room, lying back against the wall.

When Foster was brought into the front room and into the presence of the women assembled there was some excitement manifested. Mrs. Foster consumed some time and considerable vigor in telling the other ladies what she thought of them. At the close of her homily she proceeded to faint in approved fashion, which necessitated her being taken home by Hizzoner the mayor.

Curious!

Some birds are awfully curious and want to know what is going on. So if they see a human being in their neighborhood they will come close to investigate and perhaps to scold, and one of these birds is the Kentucky warbler. This bird has a preference for woods which are low and damp and ordinarily keeps well within the depth of tangled thickets. This bird, which ranges throughout the eastern United States, spends its winter in northern South America.

Only a Shepherd Dog.

A shepherd dog owned by a man in Leominster, Mass., says a writer in Our Dumb Animals, roused the family by his barking one January night. The husband, wife and two children barely escaped. Once in safety the dog's master tried to locate his brave rescuer, but the smoke was too dense. The body was found near the kitchen door leading into the front hall. Only a dog!

AMERICAN STEEL AND WIRE CO. TO CLOSE DOWN

By the Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 20.—The mills of the American Steel & Wire Co., a subsidiary of the United States Steel Corporation, employing fifty per cent of Cleveland's steel workers, will close Monday and make no attempt to open in the event the proposed strike is carried into effect. It was announced today by S. W. Tener, superintendent of employment.

A slight change will be made in the program at the Christian Church tomorrow evening. Rev. Dunn will postpone his sermon on "What Church Did Christ Establish?" and the pulpit will be filled by Lt. Ray, who will tell the story of his services overseas.

In selecting a bank with which to do your business you should choose one that is large enough to handle "big business," because a financial stringency may come and close the money channels to small institutions.

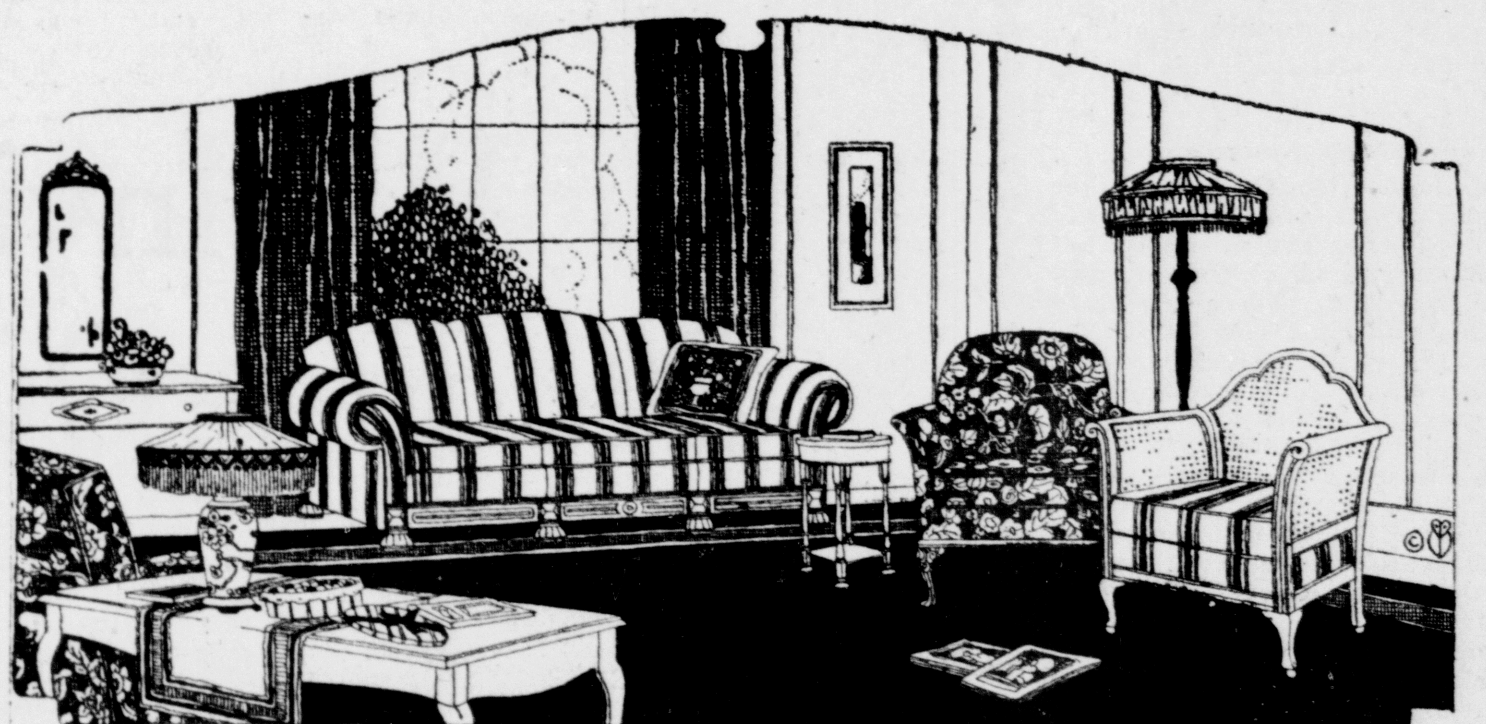

You also want a bank where service to the public is the watchword; where the taking care of your business and looking after your interests are matters performed ungrudgingly.

And as to reliability—no bank, large or small, is worthy of patronage if the least shadow of doubt is cast upon the integrity of the institution.

The Merchants and Planters National Bank offers to the public all three of these qualifications: It is large enough and has such financial connections in the money centers that hard times don't spell disaster to its patrons. This bank also renders to its patrons a service that has met their unstinted appreciation. As to reliability, our friends and customers are in position to inform you.

Methodist Notices.

A Methodist Sunday school for Methodist people and their friends is what we undertake to supply. Let every Methodist be a booster, and also an attendant. There are none too young and none too old for us. Nobody is ever a stranger twice. We'll be waiting for you at the door next Sunday morning at nine-forty-five.

"The Sword of the Lord and of Gideon" will be theme of morning sermon. The choir will render a beautiful anthem and Prof. Morris will give organ numbers.

"Royal Manhood" will be theme of evening sermon. The evening solo will be given by Mrs. A. T. Bogan, with Mr. Morris at the organ. The Epworth League meets at seven-thirty. Choir rehearsal next week, Tuesday evening at eight. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening at eight-thirty.

Let all Methodists come and connect themselves with our church. We need you and you need us worse.—Wallace M. Crutchfield, Pastor.

First Presbyterian Church.

Junior Christian Endeavor at 9 a. m. in charge of Miss Adberta Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Dr. J. M. Gordon, superintendent.
Morning worship at 11 o'clock with sermon on "The Harvest of the Righteous."
Evening service at 8:30 p. m. Subject of sermon, "Christian Knighthood."

The pastor will close his work with this congregation with the services Sunday and the messages will be appropriate. He will take up his new work in Seattle, Washington Oct. 1st. The Presbytery in session here last Thursday released him from the pastorate and gave him his letter of dismission to permit him to engage in work in the new field. He will be glad to greet every member of the congregation in the services Sunday morning and evening.—George Wesley Beck, Minister.

First Christian Church.

Alive Bible School meets promptly at 9:45. Those who are there on time get the most good out of the session. It is especially important for teachers and officers to be present on time. The superintendent is very anxious for all teachers and officers to be present a little before hour to begin. The Bible School is a mighty power for good, and it ought to receive the unqualified support of young and old.

Morning church worship begins at 11 o'clock. The minister's theme Sunday morning will be "Church Discipline." This is a very important theme, and a much neglected one. The Scriptures are very plain and positive on this question, and all are invited to head what the word of God says about it. Every member of the church is urged to be present Sunday morning. All others are cordially welcome.

The Christian Endeavorers will meet Sunday evening at 6:45. They are anxious to have all present, as the meeting will be one of the sessions of the district convention. It will be the last session. Lieutenant Wray will be present and will speak. The lieutenant is said to be very much worth hearing. All Endeavorers are asked to come out to this meeting.

Evening church worship will begin at 8:30. The minister will present a very important theme Sunday evening. His subject will be "Which Church Did Jesus Establish?" Every person who is interested in hearing this question correctly and scripturally answered is invited to be present on Sunday evening.

Prayer meeting is held regularly on Wednesday evenings. There has been a good attendance at these meetings, but there are a few seats not yet occupied. The subject for consideration and prayer next Wednesday evening will be "Our Indifferent Members."

The teachers training class meets regularly on Monday evening at 7:30, and lasts one hour.
The choir meets regularly on Wednesday evening at 7:30, just before prayer meeting.—C. V. Dunn, minister.

St. Luke's Episcopal Church.
109 E. 14th St.

Services tomorrow as follows:
Sunday School at 9:45 A. M.
Morning services at eleven o'clock.
No evening services.

Let everyone make an extra effort to be at Sunday School on time. This is vital if we are to make the most of the excellent service we are now using. Remember also the Bible class opportunity. The adults are forgetting this class. Let's get a good start on this soon.

The public, as always, is invited to attend these services.—Franklin Davis, Rector.

PROMISING SCHOOL YEAR NOW OPENED

The greatest year in the history of the schools of Pontotoc county is now opened, in the judgment of County Superintendent A. Floyd. When seen this morning by a News reporter Mr. Floyd in discussing the outlook for the schools said:

"The schools of Pontotoc county have opened with a large attendance and fine school spirit."

Every school district has voted ample funds for an 8 or 9 months' term except seven, and they will have a seven months' term.

We have been provided with funds for a truancy officer and we feel that this will be some stimulus to a better attendance.

We will have four teachers to attend the Short Course in Vitalized Agriculture conducted by Mr. P. H. Holden at Durant September 22nd-26th.

We have just completed the organization of the first consolidated school of this county. They have voted $25,000 bonds for the construction of a building. We hope to make this constructive work such that in a few years we will have rural high school work within the reach of every boy and girl in the county.

There are three things, with the co-operation of the teachers, I wish to emphasize, namely:

1. A better sanitary condition of our schools.
2. A greater per cent of attendance.
3. Consolidation where practical.

Will Pass Upon Assessments On September 27th

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19.—

Because of the absence of three members of the state board of equalization, Governor Robertson, State Treasurer Leecraft and Secretary of State Morris, the meeting scheduled for today at which it was expected to pass finally upon the returns of assessments of counties which had been delayed in making returns has been postponed to September 27.

The returns of Oklahoma and Atoka counties, which were returned to their respective assessors, in order that the total valuations of the counties would meet previous action tentatively taken by the state board, have not, as yet, reached the state auditor's office. It is now expected that these will be on file before September 27 and that the state board can conclude its work.

At a recent meeting of the equalization board a resolution was adopted under the provisions of which a state levy is to be placed at three and one-half mills. While this action was intended to be tentative at the time the resolution was adopted it is understood that its wording is such as to make it permanent, although it may have been ratified at the approaching session of the board.

MAN DOESN'T WORK, WOMAN ALLEGES

Hulsey vs. Hulsey is the style of a case filed yesterday in district court wherein Mrs. Serena Hulsey asks for divorce from Jordan Hulsey. King & Crawford are attorneys for the plaintiff.

The petitioner alleges that she married defendant at Tishomingo, June 6, 1914. Of this marriage two children have been born and are now living.

"That for the last four years the defendant has been guilty of gross neglect of duty toward this plaintiff in this, to-wit: that frequently during said period he would leave home without providing food and clothing for plaintiff and stay away one or two weeks at a time forcing this plaintiff to live with her parents; that the defendant is an able bodied man and in good health, but never makes any effort to work and provide for this plaintiff nor the two children who are the offspring of said marriage, forcing this plaintiff and her children to live up what little means she has and to live with her parents."

"That the defendant during said time has collected the greater part of the rents off plaintiff's lands and converted them to his own use by drinking and gambling, depriving plaintiff and her little children of same." She alleges further that the behavior of defendant in the respect complained of has been growing worse and is now intolerable. Wherefore she prays for divorce, custody of the children, and costs of this action.

STATE TO CONTEND IN BIG EXPOSITION

OKLAHOMA TO BE STRONGLY REPRESENTED IN "CONTEST OF STATES" AT KANSAS CITY.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 20.—That Oklahoma will be a close competitor for first honors in the "Contest of States" at the fourteenth international soil-products exposition, at Kansas City, September 24 to October 4, is assured by the action of the state legislature, which made a special appropriation to cover the cost of assembling and arranging the Oklahoma display. Nations, provinces and states enter exhibits showing their agricultural and horticultural products. A mammoth loving cup is awarded the winner.

J. A. Whitehurst, president of the Oklahoma State board of agriculture, has been charged by Governor J. B. A. Robertson with the preparation of the Oklahoma display. Felix West of El Reno is actively in charge of the collection of materials for the show.

Oklahoma Always a Contender.
A favorable location for the Oklahoma display has been selected in Convention Hall at Kansas City. Although Kansas and Nebraska have monopolized the big cups for the last four years, Oklahoma always has been a contender.

The International Farm Congress is a representative body of agricultural men. Delegates are appointed by farmer organizations, counties, agricultural colleges, states, provinces and nations. Between three and five thousand delegates are expected to meet. The congress dates are September 25, 26 and 27.

Large Prizes Offered.
Problems of international, national, sectional and local importance will be debated before the congress. Probably the most interesting topic from the standpoint of stockmen will be the presentation of the packers' side of the controversy now waging over fixing the responsibility for the present cost of meat.

Prizes aggregating $15,000 in cash and trophies will be offered for the best collection and individual exhibits at the exposition. The best bushel of wheat may win $1,020, while the least it can bring is $385. Proportionate prizes are offered in other agricultural and horticultural classes. Many counties in the midwest will display their products in the county contest, in which prizes aggregating $2,250 for ten places are offered.

Sulphur Democrat: A great deal of political interest attaches to the effort of former U. S. Senator Joe Bailey, former Governor James Ferguson and former Congressman Robert L. Henry, to organize a new party in Texas. Two big state meetings have been held so far, and the record attendance, coupled with the names of a number of illustrious and prominent politicians and ex-office holders of the Lone Star state leads us to believe that the gentlemen are meeting with great encouragement. There is magic in the name of Joe Bailey yet in Texas, and it is possible, that out of the discordant organization, he may be able to rally the hosts of Texas democrats to his standard once more. The present democratic organization is in bad shape, and there is need for brilliant leadership, if the party emerges from the throes of the Ferguson fight that well nigh disrupted the party two years ago. R. L. Henry has announced his candidacy for governor of the state on the new platform enunciated by Joe Bailey, and it is probable a full ticket will be put out. The efforts of Joe Bailey however at this time is centered on capturing the democratic organization in Texas, write a new platform, and make a realignment of forces. There is better hopes or success along this line of endeavor than in trying to born a new party.

We Invite You to Decorate Our Marble Slab

Next time you draw a pay check, whether on this or any other bank, suppose you try a little deposit in this bank. You'll find that money slips as smoothly over our marble slab as over any other one you ever saw, and you never "decorated" the receiving window of any bank where your business was more heartily appreciated. We might add, moreover, that no banking institution ever rendered you more efficient service or extended more banking courtesies than this place is able to do.

Muskogee Fair Office Snowed With Exhibits

By News' Special Service
MUSKOGEE, Sept. 20.—Practically every department is represented in the stream of entry blanks flowing into the office of the fair secretary today. Entries are to close tonight, and last minute arrivals are making things hum round the fair office.

Beef cattle, Percheron horses, embroidered nighties, honey bees, Duroc Jersey hogs and nice red apples mingled joyously on the secretary's desk, while anxious inquirers on the telephone wanted to know about pop-corn concessions, reserved seats, boxes and machinery space and a hundred other things all at once.

The sale of reserved seat tickets for the grand stand opened at 9:00 o'clock Friday morning at Ward's Office Supply company, on Broadway. An additional row of boxes on the north end of the grand stand, which it has been definitely decided to build, has already been sold out, and many who wanted boxes are buying reserved seat tickets.

Work is progressing on new cattle barns, new sheep and hog sheds, and a big tent has been ordered to house cattle exhibits. A big exhibit in the dairy department came in Friday from the Stiles Bee Supply company of Stillwater. The exhibit will include an entry in every class.

Other entries of the day include: W. R. Crow and Son, Hutchinson, Kans., 25 Duroc-Jersey hogs. C. T. Hall, Carthage, Mo., three saddle horses. These horses took sweepstakes prizes at the Minneapolis State fair this fall.

Walter Crouch, Vinita, 17 saddle horses, including the famous Astral King. D. W. Garrison, Carson, Okla., five Percherons. Gilliam and Sharp, Checotah, three short horn cattle.

Daniel Leonard and Son, Corning, Iowa, big entry of Shropshire sheep. F. P. Sylvester, the Oaks Sheep ranch, Siloam Springs, Ark., twenty-eight Shropshire sheep and two Duroc-Jersey hogs.

W. I. Jones, Grove, Okla., apples. In view of the fact that the president will visit here next week, Patterson believed the communication of enough importance to warrant an investigation by the federal attorney.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 20.—Fearing that some open attempt might be made against the president, Joe Patterson, commissioner of public property, immediately turned over to John Fain, federal district attorney, a blank petition calling for the impeachment of Woodrow Wilson. Patterson received the blank petition through the mails in an envelope postmarked "Oklahoma City." It covers eight printed pages, gives 21 reasons as ground for impeachment, has a blank space for signatures and directions for the recipient to mail to "your representative in congress."

Wilson Given Watch BY LABOR FEDERATION

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 19.—When Ollie S. Wilson, commissioner of public works, returned from the labor convention at Sapulpa yesterday afternoon, he brought with him a beautiful gold watch elaborately engraved with the following inscription:

"Presented by the Sixteenth Annual Convention of the Oklahoma State Federation of Labor to Ollie S. Wilson, in recognition of his faithful services as secretary and treasurer from 1912 to 1919."

The watch has a gold dial with phosphorus hands. "They took me by surprise and just about knocked me off my feet," Wilson said yesterday with a big smile on his face.

The presentation was made by Edgar Fenton, president of the federation, with whom Wilson did much of his organized labor work.

A NERVOUS WRECK From Three Years' Suffering. Says Cardui Made Her Well.

Texas City, Tex.—In an interesting statement, Mrs. G. H. Schill, of this town, says: "For three years I suffered untold agony with my head. I was unable to do any of my work."

I just wanted to sleep all the time, for that was the only ease I could get, when I was asleep. I became a nervous wreck just from the awful suffering with my head.

I was so nervous that the least noise would make me jump out of my bed. I had no energy, and was unable to do anything. My son, a young boy, had to do all my household duties.

I was not able to do anything until I took Cardui. I took three bottles in all and it surely cured me of those awful headaches. That has been three years ago, and I know the cure is permanent for I have never had any headache since taking Cardui.

Nothing relieved me until I took Cardui. It did wonders for me."

Try Cardui for your troubles—made from medicinal ingredients recommended in medical books as being of benefit in female troubles, and 40 years of use has proven that the books are right. Begin taking Cardui today.

American War Mothers Soon Meet In Capital

By the Associated Press
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 20.—War mothers all over the United States are completing plans to be offered for the strengthening and perfecting of the National American War Mothers organization when it meets in Washington, D. C., on Sept. 29, 30, Oct. 1 and 2.

National headquarters for the only organization of its kind that is made up solely of mothers who offered their sons for army, navy and marine service—are in Indianapolis and Mrs. Alice French is president.

Any assistance the mothers can give in helping to curb the wave of unrest that has swept over the country will be given, it is said, and this subject will be thoroughly discussed.

One of the features of the convention will be the meeting for mothers whose sons lost their lives while in the service. Various committee meetings also are on the program.

Mrs. J. A. Mitchell, of Kentucky, is chairman of the election board. Chairmen of other committees include: Mrs. Silver Sevringard, of North Dakota, constitution; Mrs. John C. McNutt, of Indiana, publicity; and Mrs. Alice French, finance.

The National Board of Directors are Mrs. Dorcas A. Hatcher, of Paris, Ky.; Mrs. Emma V. W. Strandford, of Pocatello, Idaho; Mrs. Oliver Harriman, New York; Mrs. Elizabeth Carr, Indianapolis; Mrs. Edith C. Mettlin, Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. Jean Millies, Altoona, Pa.; Mrs. John C. Champion, Rochester, Minn.; Mrs. Grace Fable, Topeka, Kansas; Mrs. H. R. Gould, New Orleans, La.; and Mrs. Marion Reese, Devils Lake, North Dakota.

Ada Camp No. 568 meets every Tuesday night, I. O. O. F. Hall, 7:30 o'clock. HUGH BENNETT, C. C. C. E. CUNNING, Clerk.

PONTOTOC COUNTY IS GROWING NEW CROPS

It is said that the man who follows the beaten track may make a living, but he never will get wealthy. Anyway, the farmers of Pontotoc county are leaving the beaten trail and striking out into new fields. Some of them are making money at it, too, and demonstrating that Oklahoma farmers can grow any crop that will grow south of the snows and north of the tropics.

Barley is becoming a favorite crop with some of the growers. Three years ago there was no land planted to barley in Pontotoc county. This season there were several hundred acres planted to the crop, and those who professed to know say the acreage another year will run into the thousands.

The advantage of barley over corn is the fact that it produces from 30 to 60 bushels on land that will not produce half that much corn. Inasmuch as barley is almost as good feed, better for some purposes, as corn, the farmers are getting enthusiastic about it.

Along with barley comes sweet clover. Approximately 2,000 acres were sown to sweet clover in the county last spring. J. B. Hill, the county farm demonstration agent, cannot find a single dissatisfied planter.

Clint Palmer last spring sowed sweet clover on six acres of sandy soil. Beginning 30 days after the clover was planted he pastured 10 cows on the six acres for 60 days. At the end of that time he mowed three tons of hay.

NORMAL PEOPLE, both teachers and pupils will find their religious opportunity with us at the Methodist church and Sunday school, if they are Methodists. 9-19-11

SOCIETY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Warren, 123 North Mississippi, was the very pleasant scene of a family house party on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, when the occasion was to honor their sister, Mrs. D. H. Nebain, who took her departure on Thursday for Germany where she will join her husband, Dr. Nebain, who is a captain in the medical corps and who is being detained with the regular army in Germany. Those present were, the mother, Mrs. R. C. Couch, Mrs. John Brents and son, Cecil, of Porter, Oklahoma; Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Couch, of Okmulgee; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Sanders, of Ada; and Mrs. J. R. Couch, of Ada; and Mrs. R. T. Couch and son, Richard, of Ada.

Informal Party.
Honoring their son, Kenneth C. Franks, who has been enjoying a furlough with homefolks, and who will return next Sunday to regular army service at Camp Travis, Mr. and Mrs. William Franks, 423 North Beards, entertained a number of young folks at their home last evening. Something like twenty-five guests were present, and a most enjoyable evening was spent in playing games. Music was furnished by several of the guests and at the conclusion of the evening delightful refreshments were served.

Wednesday Bridge.
Mrs. W. W. Sledge presided over a very pleasant at-home to the Wednesday Bridge Club this week at her home, 623 South Broadway. Members present were Mesdames P. A. Norris, W. W. Sledge, Paul Alderson, W. K. Chaney, C. Rodarmel, W. H. Ebey, C. R. Drummond. Special guests were Mesdames C. A. Galbraith, Ralph R. Cain, Harmon Ebey, Isham Cummings, Mitchell of Kansas City, A. T. Boggan and Byron Sledge.

Miss Bess Barrow, teacher of expression and aesthetic dancing, has arrived in the city after having spent the summer in study at Chicago. Miss Barrow will be at home with Mrs. L. E. Pettigrew, 220 East 13th, and will take up her work again Monday.

HUNGARIAN AFFAIRS ARE GROWING WORSE

By the Associated Press
BUDEPEST, Sept. 19.—The situation here is growing daily more critical. As the Rumanians withdraw they continue to requisition railway equipment of all kinds, virtually stripping the country of the means of railway transportation. The Rumanians are taking with them, it is charged, almost every movable thing on which they can lay hands, including livestock and agricultural implements. They demand that the Hungarians redeem at par value three hundred and fifty million crowns in bolshevik money for an equal amount of the money of the present government.

PRESIDENT AND PARTY IN LOS ANGELES TODAY

By the Associated Press
LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 20.—President Wilson and his party arrived here at 9 o'clock today from San Diego. A large crowd was at the depot to welcome the president. After a brief stop the train was moved to a secluded place in the railroad yards. It had been announced that the president would not leave the train until noon.

The president did not appear on the platform of his special train during the stop at the depot, although a large crowd was waiting to greet him.

H. S. Students Strike for Less Work More-Play

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa.—At last the young people of America are learning the lesson taught by their elders. For years, the children have seen their parents leave their work and go on strike for shorter work days. They have heard their parents' friends talk of striking if they, also, failed to get what they wanted. So, the youngsters have come to the conclusion that their experienced elders have been showing them the path in which they should walk. Accordingly, 300 high school pupils at Cedar Rapids went on a strike Thursday morning for shorter class periods. They quit their class rooms and marched through the streets to the vocational school. Here they were joined by 200 vocational school pupils. And now they are trying to organize sympathetic strikes in the other schools. The children are learning their strike lessons well. There is, though, one special difference between the strikes of the children and that of their elders. The adults often strike for less work and more pay, whereas the children strike for less work and more play.

ON THE FUNNY SIDE

Foolish Question.
"Would you advise me to keep out of politics?"
"Young man," replied Senator Sorghum, "you were born a citizen; the voting privilege is yours whether you desire it or not; you are going to be taxed and generally supervised by the people you assist in electing to office. There's no such thing as keeping out of politics."

History.
"You say your son is a great student of history?"
"Yes."
"But I never see him paying much attention to books."
"No. He is willing to let bygones be bygones. He gets the really important history fresh every day in the newspaper."

It Certainly Would.
"Pop."
"Yes, my son."
"Who was Ponce de Leon?"
"She was an Indian princess of Virginia, who saved John Smith's life."
"Well, pop, it would be some contract if she was called upon to do that same act for all the John Smiths today, now, wouldn't it?"

TAKING NO CHANCES.

"Dick, darling," hinted Mrs. Youngbride, "do you remember how we used to sit on one chair at papa's?"
"That was all right at papa's," replied the practical Dick, "but I'm not going to forget that these chairs cost me good money."

Too Much Optimism.
An optimist, too much inclined to sing a lazy song,
Dreamed on; and then woke up to find That he was in all wrong.

Turning the Worm.
Mrs. Henpeck—Now, dearie, be sure to see that the suit you buy has a coat with a waist seam.
Henpeck (explosively)—I'll be—
Mrs. Henpeck (sharply)—You'll be what?
Mr. Henpeck (meekly)—Right in style if I do.

Nothingness.
"Mrs. Flimflut thinks of nothing but clothes," said the critical woman.
"Yes," answered the man who observes superficially. "And after seeing her costumed for ballroom or bathing beach I should say that when she thinks of clothes she thinks of next to nothing."

Up Against It.
"How are you getting along with the semaphore system in Plunkville?"
"We'd get along all right," said the Plunkville policeman, "if we could just keep people from stealing our semaphores."

He Wants to Know.
"Senator, these ladies have collected a lot of your speeches."
"Um."
"Don't you feel flattered?"
"Dunno. Do they want 'em to read or to make a bonfire with?"

It Got Him.
"Young man," said the educated stranger, stepping into the bookshop. "I would like to purchase a good thesaurus."
"Well, why don't you take a look at the menagerie," answered the fresh but green clerk, "this is a book store."

Wouldn't Do.
"Now, getting down to brass tacks," continued the sideshow manager, "why—"
"I daren't," interrupted the Human Ostrich, who had been ill. "The doctor says I mustn't touch solid food for at least a week yet."

Impossible.
"Why don't Bill's relatives put a good face on his marriage?"
"Put a good face on it! Have you seen the girl's?"

EVENING SOCIAL BY ANTI-CAN'T CHAPTER

The Anti-Can't Chapter of the Daughters of Wesley met in the church Friday evening for a class social. Maurine Jackson, chairman of the social committee, planned the program for the evening.

After a series of interesting games, led by Miss Jones, we were served cakes and punch while we rested.

We had a most delightful evening and were sorry when time came to go home. The following were present:

Miss Jones, Miss Steed, Vivian Reed, Helen Moser, Edith Chapman, Corine Moore, Lettie Rock, Fannie May McCain, Bessie Neely, Dorothy Heady, Clara Jones, Gladys Word, Eunice McNew, Maurine Jackson and Neva Neel.

We wish to extend an invitation to all the girls just entering the high school or the Normal to join our class. Come, be with us Sunday morning at 9:45 o'clock.—Reporter.

PETROGRAD SOVIET NOW WANT TO NEGOTIATE

By the Associated Press
COPENHAGEN, via London, Sept. 20.—The local Soviet of Petrograd has empowered the people's commissaries to begin peace negotiations with the allies on the basis of conditions to be fixed by the allied and associated powers, according to reports received here from Petrograd.

EVERY MAN SHOULD BE LOYAL TO HIS HOME TOWN

No man can be truly loyal to his business nor to himself until he becomes 100 per cent loyal to his city, yet a large proportion of the people who comprise the larger and many of the smaller cities in the country, have some sort of kick about the way their city is run.

One morning, not long ago, the writer overheard a conversation between two traveling men in the toilet room of a Pullman. They were old acquaintances who had not seen each other for several months. Both of them looked prosperous. The slim man said:

"Hello, Fat. How's the old town?"

"It's the hottest place on the map," replied Fat. "I'm tired of that dump and am trying to get the sales manager to transfer me. How are you getting along, Slim?"

"Business is mighty good," complacently replied the slim salesman. "My town would be a mighty fine place to live if we had a decent mayor and live men at the head of our Chamber of Commerce. As it is we are pegging along in the same old way and the town simply ain't growing a bit."

The little room was crowded with travelers. All of them overheard the foregoing colloquy. No doubt, some of them will pass along the news that the two cities which harbor these pleasant knockers are good places to keep away from. Such men should be kicked out of their home town. They do it more harm than good.

Is it hot in your city? If so, you can be perfectly sure that it is just as hot in other cities of the country. Here in St. Louis the temperature exceeded 100 degrees—it went to 102 for about one hour and then dropped.

A traveling man met his St. Louis customer in one of the hotels. The St. Louis man was mopping his brow, complaining of the heat and the traveling man said: "Forget it, old man. I was in Madison, Wis., day before yesterday when the thermometer registered 105 and people seemed to stand it fine."

A few months ago a young man who was raised in Los Angeles went to Akron, Ohio, to reside permanently. As a rule Los Angeles people are intensely loyal and they are unwilling to admit that there is any other city in the world to compare with their home town. The young man from the Far West city was asked if he could be happy in Akron, and he replied as follows:

"I'm not saying a thing for or against Los Angeles, except that I love that city and its institutions. I came to Akron with the understanding that you have about 150,000 people here and they must be contented or they wouldn't live here. I'm going to adapt myself to your conditions and be as happy and contented as any other man in town and I'm going to boost for this town because it's now my town."

This is the proper spirit. It is the spirit that makes loyal citizens and until the citizenry of a city is 100 per cent loyal, it will suffer from the knockers within its own gates.
